Pregnancy Birth Classes	Infancy In-Person Parent-Infant Classes	Parenting Virtual Parent Discussions
In-home, individualized birth classes catered to the needs of the growing family. Based on the work of Drs. Umberto Piscicelli and Silvana Montenaro, this class focuses on practicing deep relaxation and self-awareness during the birth process. Lessons on labor, breastfeeding, the development of the infant, and the adjustment to a new family life are also included. 8-week sessions should start around the 6th or 7th month of pregnancy. Scheduled around the family's needs. Appropriate for all types of births.	Semester long Saturday classes(Aug-Dec &amp; Jan-May), from 8-9:30am at the MCHD Park Hill campus. 15 classes per semester. Built around observation of the development of the child and building community. Appropriate for all families with babies who are not yet walking. <small>For students "graduating" early from in-person classes (as determined by the class guide), tuition will be prorated at a rate of $17.50 per class for each remaining class. In all other circumstances, missed classes will not be reimbursed.</small>	Semester long virtual discussions(Aug-Dec &amp; Jan-May) once per month on Saturdays, 2-3:30pm. 5 discussions per semester focusing on practical parenting and Montessori topics. Appropriate for families with children 3 years old and younger. <small>Discussions are recorded and distributed to class attendees. Missed classes will not be reimbursed.</small>
